

Name: _____

Date: _____

Feed and Nutrition Vocabulary Quiz

- | | |
|--|----------------------|
| 1. An animal that eats meat and meat products | A. Palatable |
| 2. An animal that eats a combination of meat and plant materials | B. Withdrawal period |
| 3. An animal that eats plant materials | C. Feed Tag |
| 4. Chemical elements or compounds found in food that provide energy, promote growth, and allow for the maintenance of body functions | D. Roughage |
| 5. Ingredients in the diets of animals, including flavoring and preservatives | E. Herbivore |
| 6. An organic compound composed of amino acids that are used in the building and repair of tissues | F. Fetus |
| 7. An organic compound that is a building block of proteins | G. Protein |
| 8. An organic substance occurring in foods that can be broken down for energy | H. Omnivore |
| 9. Fats and oils | I. Feed Additive |
| 10. Lack of a nutrient in an animal's system | J. Diet |
| 11. A substance added to animal feed to promote growth and health | K. Medicated Feed |
| 12. The time an animal must be taken off of any antibiotics before the animal is sent to market or used to produce milk | L. Amino Acid |
| 13. A device placed under the skin of an animal that delivers hormones to the animal | M. Hormone Implant |
| 14. Beneficial microorganisms added to feed to improve digestion | N. Feedstuff |
| 15. Feed that is high in fiber | O. Concentrate |
| 16. Feed that is high in energy with less than 18% crude fiber | P. Ration |
| 17. The total amount of feed provided to an animal within a 24 hour period | Q. Deficiency |
| 18. The type and amount of feed provided over a period of time | R. Probiotic |
| 19. Pleasing to the taste | S. Carnivore |
| 20. Fat intermingled with the muscle fibers | T. Lipids |
| 21. Unborn animal that is still developing in the womb | U. Nutrient |
| 22. Label attached to a bag of commercial feed | V. Marbling |

23. Any feed that contains one or more medications

W. Carbohydrate