

Fentanyl medication

Across

- 2. placed in mouth between cheek and lower gum and sucked on
- 7. , used for a patient in need of severe, around clock, long-term opioid treatment
- 8. what tests are ran to look at liver function
- 9. what tests are ran to look at kidney function

11. nausea, vomiting, tiredness, dizziness, constipation, these are all a few examples of what?

12. placed on floor of mouth and allowed to completely dissolve (not to be chewed or cut)

Down

1. dangerous side effect relating to the breathing much slower then normal

3. placed above rear molar between cheek and gum

4. must wait 2 hours in between doses and only in one nostril

5. patch should be placed _____ of where old patch was

6. this can be administered if toxicity may occur

10. blood pressure, heart rate, respiration rate, temperature