

Figurative Language

Across

- 2. A story set in a time earlier than the main story.
- 4. A polite expression used in place of words/phrases that otherwise might be considered harsh/unpleasant to hear.
- 6. She stabbed me in the back
- 8. When a writer gives an advance hint of what is to come later in the story

- 9. We're like two peas in a pod.
  - 10. The use of symbols to represent ideas and qualities
  - 11. A sound word
- Down
- 1. Jump like jumping jelly beans.
  - 3. I died Laughing.
  - 5. Often said sarcastically.
  - 7. A bike can't stand alone because it's two-tired