

Figurative Language & Sound Devices

Across

2. An extended comparison between two unlike things.
 3. A figurative saying in which a bit of "wisdom" is given. (Ex: All that glitters is not gold)
 7. A reference to something well known. (Ex: It's raining so hard, I hope it does not rain for 40 days and 40 nights.)
 13. a heart symbolizes love is an example of _____. (Gives something in literature a double meaning.)
 14. The use of repeated words or phrases.
 16. I'm so tired I could die. (An exaggerated statement used to heighten effect.)
 17. comparison between two unlike things that uses a form of "be".

18. opposite of literal language
 19. expression in one language that cannot be matched or directly translated word-for-word in another language.
 20. helps the reader develop expectations about the coming events in a story
 21. The same sound at the start of several words.
Down
 1. Opposite of hyperbole. (Ex: I will be back in 1 second.)
 4. The skys poured rain. (gives the qualities of a person to an animal, an object, or an idea)
 5. The use of words taht mimic sounds.

6. When two words are put together that contradict each other. (Ex: Seriously funny)
 8. An overused saying. (falling head over heels)
 9. comparison between two unlike things that uses the word "like" or "as"
 10. Language that appeals to the five senses.
 11. When what happens is the OPPOSITE of what you expect.
 12. A form of "word play" in which words have a double meaning.
 15. The use of repeated sounds at the END of words.