

Final Exam

Across

2. A type of weaving that does not use a traditional loom.

5. The unfortunate result of too-tight stitches.

8. The tool used to weave horizontal stitches.

10. Japanese artist who created Saori weaving.

11. The process of pushing horizontal threads together so that they don't show. It can be done with your fingernails or a fork.

12. The horizontal threads on a weaving loom.

13. The product of weaving.

15. ENOUGH already! Another name for weaving but the warp threads DO NOT show.

16. Australian artist who creates enormous circular off-loom woven wall hangings.

Down

1. A style of weaving where anything goes-wild colors, knots, etc.

3. The other name for horizontal threads on a weaving loom.

4. Peruvian tapestry artist famous for his brilliant colors and intricate designs.

6. Yet ANOTHER name for the product of weaving.

7. Another name for the product of weaving.

9. One of these at the end of each row will prevent the hourglass effect.

14. The act of creating cloth on a loom.

Word Bank

Off Loom

Tammy Kanat

Misao Jo

Loop

Fabric

Weaving

Textiles

Saori

Beating

Hourglass

Wool

Needle

Tapestry

Warp

Maximo Laura

Cloth