

Name: _____

Date: _____

Final Review

Across

- 1. a character who undergoes a deep change from within a story
- 2. the main character in a story
- 5. a point of view where the narrator knows all
- 7. a story with two levels of meaning: a surface level meaning and a symbolic or metaphoric meaning
- 8. a genre that is set in the past and may include real people, places, or significant events from history
- 12. what happens is the opposite of what we expect would happen
- 16. the repetition of vowel sounds among words
- 19. a single line of a poem
- 23. a grouped set of lines in a poem set apart with a line of space
- 25. the time and place of a story
- 26. the narrator is not in the story but focuses on one character's point of view
- 27. vivid writing that appeals to the senses
- 28. what happens in a story; the chain of events that make up a story

- 30. the attitude of the writer or speaker
- 31. a comparison of unlike things by saying that one thing is a dissimilar object or thing
- 33. a repetition of consonant sounds among words
- 34. the atmosphere or feeling created by a work of literature
- 35. the most exciting or intense part of the story for the protagonist; a turning point in the story
- 36. the author tells you explicitly what a character is like
- 37. a genre that is set in the future and based on the impact of real, potential, or imagined technology
- 38. the end of the story where the main conflict is resolved
- 39. using an object or word to represent an abstract idea

Down

- 3. the repetition of the same initial consonant sound among words
- 4. rhymes at the end of lines
- 6. events that follow the climax and lead to the resolution

- 9. rhymes within lines
- 10. a truth about life that is revealed in a story
- 11. the anxiety a reader feels about what may happen next in the story
- 13. words whose final syllables have the exact same sound
- 14. a form of poetry that tells a story and has a setting, characters, and a plot
- 15. giving human qualities to nonhuman things
- 17. adjectives that describe a character on the table
- 18. the author interrupts the plot to recreate an event of earlier time
- 20. the standpoint from which a story is told
- 21. phrases or lines of a poem that are repeated
- 22. a character that remains the same throughout the story
- 24. a group of words whose collective meaning is quite different from their individual, literal meaning
- 29. where the setting, characters, and basic situation are revealed
- 32. a comparison that uses the words like or as