

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

First Aid and Injuries

- | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|
| 1. These are injuries to the skin caused by something sharp, like a knife. | A. antibacterial |
| 2. These are slight injuries that happen when a sharp object, like a fingernail or thorn, scrapes along your skin the way a pencil scrapes across paper. | B. Fracture |
| 3. This is a scrape that happens when the skin is rubbed away. For example, you might get a "rug burn" while wrestling with your brother or a "board burn" if you wipe out on your skateboard when you weren't wearing kneepads. | C. Abrasions |
| 4. Comes to the rescue to help body stop bleeding. | D. Platelets |
| 5. Crust that forms over a wound. | E. dislocated |
| 6. Help fight off infection in the body | F. Glue |
| 7. Gives extra protection against cut, abrasions and scratches. | G. Stitches |
| 8. Very deep and wide cuts need | H. Scab |
| 9. Minor cuts need this. | I. Sprain |
| 10. Jim is basketball and rolls his ankle. Jim has _____ his ankle. | J. Cuts |
| 11. Broken bones are called | K. Scratches |
| 12. If your finger pops and can't go back into place, obviously, you finger is | L. White Blood Cells |