

First Amendment Vocabulary

Across

3. an organized system of beliefs, ceremonies, and rules used to worship a god or a group of gods
 5. newspapers, magazines, and radio and television news reports
 12. not limited in any way
 14. to make (your thoughts and feelings) known
 16. to agree to do or allow something; to give permission for something to happen or be done
 17. an expression of ideas, opinions; often spoken
 18. to officially control and lead (a group of people) to make decisions about laws, taxes, social programs, etc., for (a country, state, etc.)
 19. in the proper or expected way

21. a written document that people sign to show that they want a person or organization to do or change something; a formal written request made to an official person or organization; letter
 22. belief, judgment, or way of thinking about something : what someone thinks about a particular thing

Down

1. for the benefit of someone
 2. the group of people who control and make decisions for a country, state, etc.
 4. to begin or create (something that is meant to last for a long time)
 6. to express disapproval of (someone or something) : to talk about the problems or faults of (someone or something)

7. supreme political power; unlimited power over a country
 8. someone who acts or speaks for or in support of another person or group
 9. a group of people who have gathered together
 10. a point beyond which it is not possible to go
 11. a government in which the supreme power is in the people and exercised by them directly
 13. permitted, accepted, or approved by the government or by a person or organization that has authority
 15. to publicly or officially say that you support or approve of (someone or something)
 20. to use (an ability, power)