

Fishing

Across

2. There are only about 500 species of fish that are commercially _____?

6. By 2005, many people worldwide were starting to recognize the concerns associated with _____ of species.

9. There are approximately 40 _____ people worldwide who are employed in fishing and aquaculture activities.

10. Another major concern associated with commercial fishing is _____?

12. What plant provides food and shelter for thousands of species?

14. _____ fishing occurs throughout much of the ocean in all regions.

15. _____ occurs when the quantity of fish taken exceeds the amount of fish that can be resupplied

Down

1. Species that get trapped in nets and ultimately become part of the ocean floor as _____?

3. Of the 142 million metric tons of catch, 108 million metric tons were used directly for _____?

4. What country consumes on average 72 kilograms of fish per year?

5. Commercial fishing claimed the potential to harvest as many as 500 to 600 million _____ for human use.

7. _____ is the process of breeding, rearing and harvesting of organisms in aquatic environments.

8. Americans consumer on average 29.7 kilograms of _____ per year?

11. What accounts for 4% of what humans eat?

13. In 2012, those 500 species accounted for approximately 142 million metric tons of _____?