

Folk and Pop Culture

Across

5. Dynamic culture based in large, heterogeneous societies permitting considerable individualism, innovation, and change; having a money-based economy, division of labor into professions, secular institutions of control, and weak interpersonal ties; and producing and consuming machine-made goods. Pop
6. An object made by a human being, typically an item of cultural or historical interest
8. Culture traditionally practiced by a small, homogeneous, rural group living in relative isolation from other groups. Folk
10. The concept that people of different culture will definitely observe and interpret their environment and make different decision about its nature, potentiality and use Cultural
12. Reasons certain culture/region eat certain types of food. Food

14. Practices followed by the people of a particular cultural group.

16. The concept that people of different culture will definitely observe and interpret their environment and make different decision about its nature, potentiality and use Cultural/Environmental

17. The human-made space in which people, live, work, and recreate on a day to day basis

Down

1. The theory that the physical may set limits on human actions, but people have the ability to adjust to the physical environment and choose a course of action from many alternatives.

2. The physical manifestations of human activities; includes tools ,campsites, art, and structures. The most durable aspects of culture. Material

3. The area outside of the core of a culture region in which the culture is still dominant but less intense

4. Occurs when multiple cultures become more like one another through exposure to traditions, ideas, and languages

7. The specific customs that are part of the everyday life of a particular culture, such as language, religion, ethnicity, social institutions, and aspects of popular culture. Cultural

9. A repetitive act that a particular individual performs.

11. A region defined by similar culture traits and cultural landscape features. Cultural

13. The entire region throughout which a culture prevails. Culture

15. Locations on earth's surface where specific cultures first arose. Cultural