

Font's Crosswords

Across

2. Standard choice for fonts with no formatting
 8. Fonts that are graphically enhanced or contain extreme features usually used for visual impact
 9. Type with a strong or vivid appearance used to show emphasis
 10. Fonts that resemble handwritten or cursive text
 11. A font that is thinner or has less definition than standard font

Down

1. Fonts without extending lines or finishing strokes, or “feet” at the end of the main stroke or text.

3. Font where the characters are tightly spaced, more narrow to each other than standard font
 4. Any part in a lowercase letter that extends above the x-height, in letters such as
 5. A form of type that slants slightly to the right
 6. The different types of formatting available for type.
 7. Fonts with extending lines or finishing strokes, sometimes called “feet” at the end of the main stroke or text.

Word Bank

San Serif Bold Roman Serif Light Condensed
 Font Style Ascender Decorative Italic Script