

Food Safety

Across

- 4. this is the bodys defence to toxin in the stomach
- 8. the most common causative agent for food poisoning
- 11. a type of poisonous food
- 13. a risk group for food poisoning
- 14. you would use this to test for pathogens in food
- 15. a person who shows no signs of illness but spreads pathogens

Down

- 1. a person who has recovered from illness but is still excreting the pathogenis organism
- 2. ready to eat foods which support the multiplication of bacteria and will not be cooked
- 3. the time between eating food and the first signs of illness
- 5. an acute illness caused by the consumption of contaminated food

- 6. the measures necessary to control hazards and ensure food is fit for consumption
- 7. a common symptom of food poisoning
- 9. a type of pan that could cause food poisoning if used for cooking acid food
- 10. a bean that could be poisonous
- 12. pathogens which can cause illness with only a few organisms