

Food and Nutrition Professional

Across

4. What is the minimum degree currently required to become a registered dietitian?
7. One of the skills important for RDNs is _____, which is done when evaluating the health status of a client and determining the best food choices for them based on what they've observed.
9. Dietitians must show _____ to their clients by being caring and empathetic when discussing dietary issues.
12. Dieticians who work with the public and may be working at places such as WIC or food pantries are called _____ dietitians.
14. What is the supervised practice that people studying to be a registered dietitian have to complete called?
15. Dietitians and nutritionists _____ individuals on nutrition issues and healthy eating habits.

16. Nutrition majors may choose to work in _____ after graduation or after receiving a RDN credential in areas such as product development.

18. Dietitians must be able to _____ skillfully, whether it be when trying to explain topics to clients in a simpler manner, or when presenting to a group of people on a particular subject.

19. Those who work in a kitchen and prepare food for clients are called a(n) _____.

Down

1. Dietitians tend to be _____, so they can plan sessions and know what is going on with each client.

2. Dietitians who work in hospitals and other health-care facilities are called _____ dietitians.

3. A professional that counsels individuals and gives them nutrition advice, but doesn't have the RDN credential is called a(n) _____.

5. Dietitians tend to like working in a positive working _____.

6. Dietitians may develop _____ for clients, which take the client's preferences and budget into account.

8. You have to take a national _____ administered by the Commission on Dietetic Registration to earn your RDN credential.

10. As a dietitian, it is important to not just say what you think the patient needs to do, but to _____ to them and see what their concerns are.

11. After becoming a RDN, you still have to take _____ education courses in order to keep your RDN credential.

13. What will the minimum degree be to become a registered dietitian starting in 2024?

17. Those who work to make meal plans for cafeterias, hospitals, and schools work in food _____.