

Foreign Affairs 1945-1951

Across

4. The Treaty in 1951 that formally set up the ECSC that Britain did not attend

8. the adoption of the nuclear weapon programme angered this side of the party

10. Who said that they could not join the ECSC because Durham miners would not like it

11. The name of the plan that had the idea of European nations pooling their most productive resources together

12. European nations most productive resources

13. Bevin was deterred by there reluctance to accept the loss of national sovereignty

Down

1. these were frequently passed at party conferences but never in government

2. Labour's achievements in this meant they were not willing to hand over their economic areas to a foreign body

3. Attlee and Bevin were _____ at heart

5. Party that echoed labour governments views of Europe

6. An organisation having power over is individual member states

7. This was first detonated in 1952

9. this played a major role in Labours reluctance of the ECSC as they were their main financial backers