

Name: _____

Forensic Anthropology

- | | |
|---|-----------------------|
| 1. estimation of the deceased's sex, age, stature, and ancestry | A. tendon |
| 2. unattached end of a bone that eventually becomes fused with the bone shaft | B. osteoporosis |
| 3. shaft of a bone | C. diaphysis |
| 4. locations where bones meet | D. joint |
| 5. strong cord of tissue that connects a muscle to a bone | E. biological profile |
| 6. strong band of tissue that connects two bones | F. epiphysis |
| 7. area of cartilage between the bone shaft and the cap of an immature bone | G. ligament |
| 8. process that replaces cartilage with bone | H. red marrow |
| 9. process of loss in bone density | I. spongy bone |
| 10. part of the bone that produces red blood cells | J. epiphyseal plate |
| 11. | K. compact bone |
| 12. | L. ossification |