

Name: _____

Forensic Psychology Chapter 1 & 4

Across

2. There are 3 roles of "Forensic" Psychologist regarding the legal system. Two of them are Psychologist as advisors and Psychologist as evaluators. What is the third role of Psychologist _____
4. Features of finger prints are called _____
10. When a forensic scientist wants to express the conclusion that a trace found at a crime scene came from this source to the exclusion of all other sources, the word they would use is _____
11. Name of the 1906 court brief that argued that health of women was injured by working long hours leading to the deterioration of the family _____
13. Finger prints, Iris, Retina and Facial recognition involve the identification of an individual based on measurable anatomical traits. This is correctly known as _____

14. these ridges are tiny swirling lines on your finger tips and palms likely developed over the human evolution to help improve ability to grip tree limbs, weapons and tools

Down

1. When 2 samples are a match, they are said to come from a _____ source
3. The first identification technique used to identify one human from another using 11 measurements height, arm length, middle finger length, cranium size and left foot length is known as _____
5. The branch of psychology concerned with the accuracy of eye witness testimony _____
6. The largest and most frequently used DNA data base in the world is _____

7. The first person to assert that finger prints are unchanged over one's life time and that each persons finger prints are unique is Sir Francis _____

8. An Amicus Curiae Brief is a _____ of the Court brief
9. Which 1954 court case caused the Supreme court to rule against the Board of Education in an opinion that indicated that keeping black and white children segregated was a violation of the 14th amendment _____
12. The branch of psychology interested in Police interrogations and use of coercion and persuasion to induce a confession. _____

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|-----------|---------------|----------|----------|---------------|
| Reformers | Friend | Friction | Galton | Anthropometry |
| Social | Biometrics | Minutiae | Brandeis | Cognitive |
| CODIS | Individuation | Common | Brown | |