

Forensics Vocab

Across

2. The branch of science concerned with the nature, effects, and detection of poisons
8. drawing a conclusion based on premises that are assumed to be true
9. A person who has seen something happen
10. relating the application of scientific methods and techniques to the investigation of crime

Down

1. Skill of performing an analysis
3. judgement formed about something not based on fact
4. The ability to see or become aware of something through the senses
5. the action of watching someone or something to gain information
6. Clear reasoning
7. Something that is known or proven to be true