

Forestry Terms

Across

1. Cut down and remove every tree from an area.

9. Science of creating, managing, using, conserving, and repairing forests, woodlands, and associated resources for human and environmental benefits.

12. Responsible interaction with the environment to avoid depletion or degradation of natural resources.

13. An area of land covered by forests

14. These annual rings show the amount of wood produced during one growing season.

Down

2. Wildfire set intentionally for purposes of forest management, farming, or prairie restoration.

3. The cutting down of selected trees in a forest so that growth of other trees is not affected.

4. Land covered with forest suitable or managed for timber. Thought of in terms of its potential and value.

5. Trees that seasonally shed leaves; usually in autumn.

6. Refers to responsible use and protection of the natural environment.

7. A tree or plant that doesn't shed its leaves in the winter, but stays green all year.

8. The process of replanting an area with trees.

10. The growing and cultivation of trees.

11. Selective removal of trees, primarily undertaken to improve the growth rate or health of the remaining trees.