

Frankenstein Vocabulary

Across

3. the tendency to lay down principles as incontrovertibly true, without consideration of evidence or the opinions of others.

4. severe, rough, harsh weather

7. incapable to achieve

10. an act or instance of summarizing and restating the main points of something.

14. a high degree of competence or skill; expertise.

16. to make something abnormally lean

17. deserving or causing public disgrace or shame.

18. time spent recovering from an illness or medical treatment; recuperation. "a period of convalescence"

21. instance of malignant or malicious behavior or nature.

23. enthusiasm or passion.

24. to change ones nature

25. a person's face or facial expression.

Down

1. (of a comment, event, or fact) cause annoyance or resentment that persists.

2. voluntarily cease to keep or claim; give up.

5. to inspire as with feelings and opinions

6. an agreement for two or more persons to meet at a certain time

8. make amends to (someone) for loss or harm suffered; compensate.

9. something used to attract or to tempt someone; a lure.

11. foretell or prophesy (an event in the future).

12. A house or place where dead bodies are stored

13. To speak clearly, enunciate

15. the feeling that a person or a thing is beneath consideration, worthless, or deserving scorn.

19. completely baffled; very puzzled.

20. not formally consecrated

22. to cut apart