

Name: _____

Freedom of Speech

Across

2. The court said that the right to _____ was more important than the right to expressive speech.

7. Democratic government demands that everyone has the right to _____ freely.

8. The most common form of speech is _____ speech.

9. Two landmark cases have addressed how the 1st Amendment is applied to _____ speech.

10. During the 20th century, the Court has developed _____ constitutional tests, or general guidelines, to use in examining free speech cases.

12. In 1942, the Supreme Court ruled that some words are so _____ that they provoke immediate violence.

13. Also called expressive conduct. (_____ speech)

14. Doctrine developed in the 1940s. (The _____ Position Doctrine)

Down

1. During the Vietnam War, protesters would burn draft cards or flags to express _____ to the war.

3. _____ is written.

4. There are some forms of speech that are not _____ by the 1st Amendment.

5. Speech urging resistance to lawful authority or advocating the overthrow of the government. (_____ speech)

6. Slander is _____.

11. In 1925 the Court held in Gitlow v. New York that speech could be _____.