

Freedom of Speech

Across

3. the first amendment does not protect this kind of speech

4. when speech is in question and presents immediate danger

5. speech urging resistance to lawful authority or advocating the overthrow of the government

6. speech that may be delivered publicly or privately

8. when word are so insulting that they provoke immediate violence they are called what?

9. includes resistance against authority

10. speech that is spoken

11. involves the use of actions and symbols to express opinions

12. made because the "clear and present danger" was not enough to protect the governments interests

Down

1. the court held that school officials have broad authority to regulate speech in school

2. the first amendment freedoms are more fundamental than other freedoms because they provide the basis of all liberties

7. speech that is written

Word Bank

defamatory speech

slander

symbolic speech

pure speech

libel

student speech

bad tendency doctrine preferred position doctrine clear and present danger

fighting words

sedition laws

seditious speech