

Friends and Family

Across

2. Adolescents who are neither liked or disliked
 7. Individuals who are about the same age or level of maturity
 10. Play that involves simple, repetitive activities typical of a 3 year old
 11. Adolescents who are liked by some and disliked by others
 12. Adolescents who are uniformly disliked

13. Rankings that represent the relative social power of those in a group

Down

1. A family consisting of remarried couples with at least one stepchild living with them
 3. Young adults who return, after leaving home for some period, to live in the homes of their middle-aged parents
 4. Play in which children manipulate objects to produce or build something

5. Assistance and comfort supplied by a network of caring, interested people
 6. Sex segregation in which boys interact primarily with boys and girls primarily with girls

8. Play in which children play with similar toys, in a similar manner, but do not interact with each other
 9. Development and expression of independence