

Name: _____

Date: _____

Frog vocab!

Across

- 3. a species of toad where the fertilized eggs are implanted onto the female's back until they hatch and the layer of skin is shed
- 6. a tailless amphibian with a short body, smooth skin, and long legs for jumping.
- 10. a hibernating space created by frogs
- 11. the way frogs protect their offspring; sometimes they are carried in the vocal pouch or stomach

- 12. external fertilization, usually by frogs
- 13. a frog's ear
- 14. a just-hatched baby frog that still sports a tail and gills

Down

- 1. the group of eggs that a frog lays
- 2. an animal that lays eggs and can live in both water and on land
- 4. the appearance of an animal that warns predators it is toxic or poisonous
- 5. frog flying

- 7. a state of inactivity characterized by reduced body temperature. often used to survive periods of reduced food availability
- 8. nostrils
- 9. a matured tadpole (usually about 12 weeks old) that has sprouted legs and is able to go on land

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|----------|-------------|-----------|----------|-------------|
| Torpor | Hibernacula | Tadpole | Frog | Aposematism |
| Amplexus | Gliding | Amphibian | Nares | Brooding |
| Spawn | Suriname | Froglet | Tympanum | |