

GA studies extra credit

Across

2. having a single legislative chamber.
 4. the desire to promote the welfare of others, expressed especially by the generous donation of money to good causes.
 5. the vocation or calling of a religious organization, especially a Christian one, to go out into the world and spread its faith.
 8. the action of defending from or resisting attack.
 10. a colony ruled or administered by officials appointed by and responsible to the reigning sovereign of the parent state.
 13. an individual person or member of a board given control or powers of administration of property in trust with a legal obligation to administer it solely for the purposes specified.

14. A plant that settlers in Georgia attempted to grow
 15. a group of German-speaking Protestant colonists, founded the town of Ebenezer in what is now Effingham County.
 17. the owner of a business, or a holder of property.
 19. a state formally cooperating with another for a military or other purpose, typically by treaty
 20. Someone who is against violence

Down

1. the action of forbidding something, especially by law
 3. is a gubernatorial official, appointed by a king or other monarch. It may refer to: Colonial government in the Thirteen Colonies.

6. the economic theory that trade generates wealth and is stimulated by the accumulation of profitable balances, which a government should encourage by means of protectionism.
 7. Unpaid labor
 9. Unhappy Georgia settlers
 11. Founded Georgia
 12. Islands surrounding Georgia
 16. the branch of knowledge concerned with the production, consumption, and transfer of wealth
 18. a written grant by a country's legislative or sovereign power, by which an institution such as a company, college, or city is created and its rights and privileges defined.