

Name: _____

Date: _____

GENETICS

Across

4. _____ disorders are more common in men because they have only one X-chromosome.
5. _____ is characterized by the lack of an important chemical in the brain.
8. _____ disorders happen when a child receives two defective genes from each parent.
9. _____ syndrome happens when there is an extra number 18 chromosomes.
10. _____ fibrosis is a disease in which some glands produce too much mucus.

Down

1. Down syndrome is also known as _____.
2. _____ is a rare genetic disorder that can cause serious mental retardation in infants.
3. _____ anemia is a genetic blood disorder who inherits two defective genes.
6. _____ syndrome is caused by the defection of part of the short are of chromosomes.
7. _____ syndrome is the result from the loss of a segment in chromosomes.