

Name: _____ Date: _____

GOVERNMENT

- |  |                              |
|--|------------------------------|
| 1. A political unit with defined borders, sovereignty, people and a system of government | A. nation-State              |
| 2. Having power and authority over people who live in a defined area                     | B. Dictatorship              |
| 3. A system that sets up and enforces a society's laws and institutions                  | C. Representative Government |
| 4. Type of government in which the political authority rests with the people             | D. Sovereignty               |
| 5. A King or Queen rules the government  | E. Direct Democracy          |
| 6. The people elect representatives to create laws                                       | F. Monarchy                  |
| 7. Form of Government in which one person hold total power to rule                       | G. Preamble                  |
| 8. The written document that created a system of government for our country              | H. Constitution              |
| 9. Introduction to the Constitution  | I. Political Scientist       |
| 10. A Social Scientist who is trained to study government and citizenship                | J. Government                |