

Name: _____

Date: _____

GRE 1

Across

- 1. facial expression or face (noun); approve or tolerate
- 5. in an opposite way; on the other hand
- 8. acting on impulse, erratic
- 11. cheerful or speedy willingness
- 14. fake behavior (such as in speech or dress) adopted to give a certain impression
- 17. abnormal, deviant
- 18. Overlook, tolerate, regard as harmless
- 19. the quality of being able to produce the intended effect

- 20. of questionable authenticity; false
- 21. grow or flourish rapidly; put forth buds or shoots (of a plant)
- 22. selecting the best of everything or from many diverse sources

Down

- 2. make milder, relieve, soothe pacify or calm
- 3. declare or affirm with confidence, say
- 4. rude, ill-mannered, or insensitive person; a peasant or country bumpkin
- 6. the same in size extent, etc., equivalent; proportional
- 7. thoroughly dried up, dehydrated

- 9. criticize severely, punish in order to correct
- 10. based entirely on one's discretion; capricious, unreasonable, or having no basis
- 12. warm and friendly, pleasant, approachable
- 13. behaving with propriety and good taste; polite
- 15. cunning skillful in deception or underhanded schemes
- 16. intended to instruct; teaching, or teaching a moral lesson

Word Bank

- |              |          |            |            |           |             |
|--------------|----------|------------|------------|-----------|-------------|
| commensurate | aberrant | alacrity   | desiccate  | arbitrary | condone     |
| crafty       | burgeon  | apocryphal | decorous   | assuage   | countenance |
| castigate    | eclectic | affable    | conversely | didactic  | affectation |
| aver         | efficacy | boor       | capricious |           |             |