

GRE 1

Across

5. to wander from place to place; to travel, especially on foot. journey

7. wandering and unpredictable. inconstant

9. Bea basked in the balmy ___ breezes, happy that winter was coming to an end. springlike

12. Faulkner neither confirmed nor denied stories about himself, allowing rumor to ___ where it would.. to grow

14. the children continued to ___ the death of te goldfish.. grieve, mourn

15. trace amount. mote/ spark/speck

17. The patien twas losin gblood so rapidly that it was ___ to stop the bleeding. critical, urgent

18. even though a cease-fire had been in place for months, the two sides were still ___ to each other

19. to tarnish, to tiant. defile

20. tending to be thrift or cheap

Down

1. the rebels tried to ___ revolution thourgh their attacks on the gov. agitate, arouse

2. the gignatic supermartek was ___ with consumer products of every kind.. full

3. gold is ht emost ___ of precious metals.. capable of being shaped

4. authoritative statement. aphorism/apotheqm/decree

6. The casino's ___ decor horrified the cultivate interior designer. gaudy, flashy

8. ravi prepared a delicious ___ of chicken tikka and naan.. feast

10. George W. reputation for ___ is illustrated in the legend about his inability to lie. integrity

11. many animals are ___ over the winter months, minimizing activity.. dormant

13. the unscrupulous politician used ___ to brind down his opponent. slander

16. harmless.. inoffensive

Word Bank

burgeon	scintilla	inimical	dictum	replete	calumny	erratic meretricious	quiescent	foment	vernal	frugality	peregrinate	innocuous repast	lament	probity	exigent	malleable	sully	