

Name: _____

Date: _____

Genre quiz prep

Across

- 1. you ____ your stance through your tone
- 4. your tone must be appropriate for your ____ situation.
- 6. Some genres call for print; others for an ____
- 9. A ____ offers a written portrait of someone or something that informs and sometimes entertains, often examining its subject from a particular angle
- 10. a way for information to be conveyed from one person to another. We communicate through many media, ____ and nonverbal
- 12. The way you ____ that stance affects the way you come across as a writer and a person
- 13. Your stance may be affected by your relationship to your ____
- 15. Your stance in a piece written to ____ will likely differ from the stance you'd adopt to persuade

- 16. Genres help us write by ____ features for conveying certain kinds of information.
 - 19. writers often tweak the features or combine elements of different genres to ____ a particular purpose or connect with an audience in a particular way
 - 20. An abstract of a scholarly paper calls for a different ____ than a memoir.
- Down
- 2. a ____ affects the way it is received and understood
 - 3. In print, you need to ____ unfamiliar terms; on the Web, you can sometimes just add a link to a definition found elsewhere.
 - 5. If you're writing about something you take very seriously, be sure that your language and even your typeface reflect that ____

- 7. Some print documents require a more ____ voice than spoken media; email often invites greater informality.
- 8. Different genres call for different ____ elements
- 11. Some genres and ____ (and audiences) demand color. Some information is easier to explain and read in the form of a or a bar graph than in the form of a paragraph
- 14. Your tone and especially your ____ toward your AUDIENCE will affect how willing they are to take your argument seriously.
- 17. Often your stance is ____ by your genre
- 18. ____ are kinds of writing. Letters, profiles, reports, position papers, poems, Web pages, instructions, parodies

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|--------------|-------------|-------------------|----------|-------------|
| entertain | Seriousness | DESIGN | formal | Tone |
| affected | text design | attitude | Define | communicate |
| establishing | rhetorical | express | AUDIENCE | Genres |
| Verbal | Media | electronic medium | Profile | Achieve |