

Genus of Species Named after Richard Archbold

Across

2. A central Florida treehopper
 3. A New Guinea narrowmouthed frog collected on the sixth Archbold New Guinea Expedition, 1959
 4. Cloud-forest Nightjar collected on the 1st Archbold New Guinea Expedition on the west slope of Mt. Tafa at 2400 m, in southeastern Papua New Guinea
 10. Spangled Kookaburra collected on the 2nd Archbold New Guinea Expedition
 13. A Florida jumping spider
 16. A central Florida larrid wasp

17. A central Florida long-legged fly

18. A species of rodent in the family Muridae found only in the Philippines

19. Dwarf Sparrowhawk that occurs on the island of Sulawesi

21. Owlet-nightjar collected on the third Archbold New Guinea Expedition (1938-39)

22. A central Florida mutillid wasp

23. A central Florida longhorned beetle

Down

1. McCrone's Burrowing Wolf Spider

5. Florida ichneumonid wasp

6. A central Florida pygmy mole cricket

7. A New Guinea rainbowfish collected on first Archbold Expedition 1933-1934

8. New Guinea damselflies discovered in third Archbold Expedition 1938-1939

9. Bowerbird collected on the third Archbold New Guinea Expedition (1938-39)

12. A roboticist's fantasy

14. A Florida cuckoo wasp

15. A central Florida velvet ant

20. A central Florida beetle