

Geography Vocabulary

Across

- 3. The _____ is mostly low and flat lands, with many pine forests and excellent harbors for ships.
- 6. You can find the largest tropical rainforest on this continent
- 7. An area of low, flat land
- 11. The Southern and _____ ocean are covered with huge areas of ice
- 13. These flat lines run east to west and measure degrees in North and South

- 14. A large landmass that is mostly surrounded by water
  - 15. These lines run north and south and measure degrees east and west
  - 16. This ocean is much bigger and deeper than the other oceans
  - 17. This ocean forms the eastern border of the United States
- Down
- 1. This imaginary line runs along the Rocky Mountains and divides North American into two parts
  - 2. The largest continent

- 4. Which continent are the Caribbean islands located in
- 5. Rivers that flow into larger rivers are called
- 8. This divides Earth into Western and Eastern Hemispheres
- 9. A low, bowl shaped area with higher ground around it
- 10. Geographers use this imaginary line to divide Earth into the Northern and Southern Hemispheres
- 12. The equator is located halfway between the north and _____ pole