

Geography Vocabulary

Across

- 1. Finding out information.
- 4. The part of the world that is closest to you, e.g. where you live.
- 6. A large piece of land/divisions of a country.
- 8. An area land within a continent that is controlled by a single government.
- 9. A group of islands off the northwest coast of Europe - England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.
- 10. A large continuous landmass that is usually bordered by the oceans (Europe, Asia, Africa, North and South America, Australia, Antarctica).

- 11. The idea that humans must interact with the environment in a way that ensures there will be enough resources left for future generations.

Down

- 2. Renewing old sites that have become disused or rundown and bringing them back into use.
- 3. England, Scotland and Wales
- 5. A settlement in which people live and work that is larger than a town.
- 7. A broad geographic area.