

Geography Word puzzle

Across

- 3. relates to glaciers, which are slow-moving masses of ice under the influence
- 6. a slow, downward movement, in the direction of the longshore drift
- 9. single, large rock or stone
- 10. a line of irregular sand dunes located next to the beach; formed by sand
- 11. a landform formed by tectonic plates converging (moving towards each

- 12. a crack or hole in a cliff face or coastal rock caused by erosion – air and
- 13. a constructed barrier running at right angles to the beach to stop the
- 15. rocks of volcanic origin
- 16. a large landform left after erosion; a monolith or rocky
- 17. economic activity concerned with processing raw materials and manufacture

Down

- 1. an area of fairly level, higher ground

- 2. an inlet of the sea at a river's mouth; where the river's current (fresh water)
- 4. the line or surface trace that shows the fracturing/faulting of the Earth's
- 5. exhibiting change of form
- 7. moving apart, for example, diverging tectonic plates are those that are
- 8. an area between dunes
- 14. a measure of the quantity of dissolved salts in a body of water or soil