

Geography!

Across

7. are land areas that are mostly flat, and cover more than one-third of the world's land area, and they exist on every continent
8. A smaller stream that runs into a river is called a
11. a sphere that is a model of Earth and most accurately represents it
12. a physical feature on Earth's surface such as a mountain or a plain
13. an imaginary line called a parallel that runs west and east

14. What is: weather elements, such as temperature, rainfall, and wind, that are measured over a period of time in an area

Down

1. Land that has water surrounding it on three sides is called a
2. the study of our physical surroundings and how humans interact with them
3. Between ranges of mountains or hills are low areas called
4. a part of Earth's surface including landmasses and bodies of water
5. an imaginary line called a meridian that runs from the North Pole to the South Pole
6. A river has a _____, where the river begins
9. is formed when soil is deposited at the mouth of a river, and it is usually shaped like a triangle, or a bird's foot.
10. a tool or instrument for finding directions