

Name: _____

Date: _____

Geography

Across

- 5. The study of how humans use the earth's resources.
- 6. The use of graphs, charts, tables, and numerical data.
- 7. The study of earth's water
- 8. The study of the characteristics of human population.
- 9. The study of conditions of the atmosphere

Word Bank

economic geography
Quantitative geography
urban geography
Statistical geography

- 10. The study of the characteristics of cities.
- 11. The Study of natural features of the systems on the earth.
- 12. The study of people and their interaction with the environment.

Down

- 1. The study of land forms and the process that shape them.

- 2. This involves the use of maps, and measurements to give geographical information.
- 3. The study of administrative divisions of a country.
- 4. The science of map making.

population geography hydrology human geography cartography

Physical geography Meteorology
political geography
geomorphology