

Geography of the United States

Across

2. supply water to the fields using pipes, ditches, or canals
 4. large plains area with very few trees
 8. the kind of weather a place has over time
 10. resource limited in supply and cannot be replaced
 14. the dirtying of the natural world
 16. triangular pieces of land that form where rivers meet the oceans
 18. different features such as mountains, valleys, and hills
 20. rain and snow that waters the land
 21. the customs, laws, and beliefs of a group of people

23. any area that has one or more features in common

25. countryside or small villages
 26. deep, narrow valley with steep sides

28. layers of ice covering large amounts of land

Down

1. customs that are handed down through time
 3. the use of scientific knowledge in industry

5. something found in nature that is useful to people

6. resource that can be replaced or regrown

7. the crest of the Rocky Mountains which divides the continent into two parts

9. places that are often covered by water or have ground that is soaked with water

11. farm work done to raise crops

12. cities and larger towns

13. making things

15. basic ingredient that is made into the final product

17. parents, grandparents, great-grandparents, etc.

19. cities located on sheltered bodies of water along the coast

22. height above sea level

24. sluggish, marshy creeks or small rivers

27. landform shaped like giant bowl, surrounded by higher land on all sides

Word Bank

region renewable resource urban technology
 basin harbors irrigate

glaciers rural canyon
 raw material natural resource agriculture
 bayous

manufacturing elevation precipitation heritage
 culture
 wetland landforms

ancestors climate pollution Continental Divide nonrenewable resource prairie
 deltas