

Germany

1. This law is debated to be one of the reasons for which Hitler managed to control the whole government
 2. This was signed in France and hated by the German
 3. An unsuccessful attempt to overthrow the government by the NSDAP and two other politicians
 4. After the government started printing out more money - money lost its value
 5. The New currency after Hyperinflation
 6. The appointed chancellor of 1923
 7. A pact between 63 countries including France and Germany in 1928
 8. The pact that forced Germany to agree that 'Alsace et Lorraine' is French - 1925
 9. The negotiation aiming to reduce the annual payment and extend the reparations for Germany - 1929
 10. Event of 1933 - A Dutch communist is caught red-handed and blamed
 11. This act enables Hitler to do what he wants within the government for 4 Years
 12. When Hitler murders 400 of his own SA members - 30 June 1934
 13. The president during Hitler's time as Chancellor
 14. The currency after the Depression was replaced with a new one
- A. The Locarno pact
 - B. The Rentenmark
 - C. The Night of the long knives
 - D. Hyperinflation
 - E. Article 48
 - F. The Munich Putsch
 - G. The young plan
 - H. Treaty of Versailles
 - I. President Hindenburg
 - J. The Reichstag Fire
 - K. Gustav Stresemann
 - L. Reichsmark
 - M. The Enabling Act
 - N. The Kellogg-Briand Pact