

Global Interdependence

Across

2. Overabundance of people in a region or country that lacks sufficient resources to adequately provide for them.
 3. yearn to possess or have something
 7. the dependence of two or more people or things on each other
 11. a nation with an established agriculture and industry, advanced technology, and a strong educational system
 12. bring goods or services into a country from abroad for sale
 13. Spread of disease across a large area, country, continent, or world
 14. relating to the whole world; worldwide

15. process by which fertile or semi-desert land becomes desert

16. destruction of forests, especially the rain forests.

17. the movement of people from poor regions to more wealthy regions of the world

Down

1. the state of relying on or being controlled by someone or something else
 4. an economic relationship, controlled by a developed nation, in which a less developed nation exports raw materials to the developed nation and imports manufactured tools, capital, and technology know-how
 5. process of altering the chemical codes carried by all living things

6. a nation with limited resources that faces obstacles in achieving modern industrial standards

8. send goods or services to another country for sale

9. a raw material or primary agricultural product that can be bought and sold, such as copper or coffee

10. experienced or done by each of two or more parties toward the other or others