

Google Basics Crossword

Across

- 2. Search engine that started development in 1996
- 7. A cross-platform web browser developed by Google
- 8. The greatest middle school in Sumter
- 10. A group of two or more devices that can communicate

11. The best teacher in the world

12. Allows you to enter and sort data in cells

13. Mascot

Down

1. An informative word used in an information retrieval system

3. A multinational computer technology company that develops, sells, and repairs computers

4. Facts and statistics collected together for reference or analysis

5. An electronic device used for storing and processing data

6. A way of treating others

9. A free application in which documents can be created, edited, and stored online