

Government By the People Vocab Crossword

Across

2. when a person votes for candidates in different parties on the same ticket
 7. a means of measuring how the general public feels about an issue
 8. the process of choosing candidates from only one party when voting
 11. a person's loyalty to their political party
 12. it means "friend of the court" and is a document given to a court that shows the arguments for one side of an issue
 15. the elections for congress that are in between presidential elections
 17. a law making policy where states needed approval from the Department of Justice before changing their voting laws
 21. those who can vote in an election
 24. the decisions government makes based on the wants of the people

26. an organization of workers in the same field who push for government policies that benefit them

27. those who choose to not be in a political party

28. how a person gains their political views

29. the overall view of the general public on an issue

Down

1. a fee a person would have to pay to vote

3. the feeling of being able to influence politics and that one's own vote matters
 4. mediums through which news and opinion can be given to large groups of people

5. when a strong party candidate influences people to vote for other officials in the same party

6. a report that can be aired in half a minute

9. a group of people selected arbitrarily for a poll

10. the right to vote

13. when districts are drawn in ways that benefit a particular party or group

14. a poll that asks one question to a large group of people

16. the differences between how men and women tend to vote

18. an effort by a private interest group to influence government

19. accommodations made for people who cannot go to a polling place on election day

20. where people go to vote

22. the whole population that a poll is trying to measure

23. privately owned organizations who share common goals and want to influence public policy

25. a voting district