

Name: _____

Date: _____

Government and Economics Vocabulary

Across

- 3. people with new ideas that are willing to take risks to start a business or make a product
- 5. government determines production of goods
- 10. investment by training and education; people who perform labor
- 11. citizens can elect representatives from any group to rule and make laws for them
- 13. rule by all; citizens vote on government representatives & specific issues
- 14. most modern economies in the world today

17. restrictions or limits amount of goods imported

- 18. citizens may only elect leaders from the Communist Party
- 19. leaders claim to rule on the behalf of a god
- 20. citizens don't have the power to change their leader

Down

- 1. forbids trade; block on trade
- 2. customary roles and production of goods
- 4. monarch must follow the laws of the constitution and is usually a figure-head (symbol)

6. ruled by a king, queen or emperor; has unlimited power

- 7. no government influence on supply and demand
- 8. specialize in what they do best
- 9. different ways people use resources to make and exchange goods and services
- 12. taxes placed on imported goods
- 15. rule by one; one person possesses unlimited power
- 16. investment in factories, machinery, technology; items used to perform jobs

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-----------------|-------------------------|------------------|----------------|
| specialization | constitutional monarchy | quota | capital goods |
| tariffs | democracy | autocracy | republic |
| communism | dictatorship | economic systems | market economy |
| mixed economy | theocracy | embargo | entrepreneurs |
| command economy | absolute monarchy | traditional | human capital |