

Name: _____

Government

Across

2. A _____ government is a system that divides up power between a strong national government and smaller local governments.
3. _____ is a system where the government, rather than the free market, determines what goods should be produced, how much should be produced and the price at which the goods are offered for sale.
5. _____ is a democratic and republican system of government where a head of government leads an executive branch that is separate from the legislative branch
7. a form of government run by a small number of people such as wealthy landowners, royalty or powerful military figures.
9. Alliance, association, or league in which independent entities retain their distinction and sovereignty but delegate some powers and rights to a central body (such as a central or federal government) which remains subordinate to the entities.
10. _____ is an economic system in which economic decisions and the pricing of goods and services are guided solely by the aggregate interactions of a country's individual citizens and businesses.

11. a system of government having the real executive power vested in a cabinet composed of members of the legislature who are individually and collectively responsible to the legislature has a democratically elected

Down

1. _____ is a system where traditions, customs, and beliefs shape the goods and products the society creates.
4. a form of government in which the supreme power is vested in the people and exercised directly by them or by their elected agents under a free electoral system.
6. in which one person has uncontrolled or unlimited authority over others; the government or power of an absolute monarch. a nation, state, or community ruled by an autocrat. unlimited authority, power, or influence of one person in any group.
8. A _____ state is a state governed as a single power in which the central government is ultimately supreme and any administrative divisions (sub-national units) exercise only the powers that the central government chooses to delegate.