

Name: _____

Date: _____

Gram positive bacteria & Gram negative bacteria

Across

- 3. What is a type of enterocolitis that can affect animals of any age?
- 6. What is an intestinal disease in pigs that causes swine dysentery?
- 7. This is a small, Gram negative coccobacilli
- 8. What test can cause a false positive when testing cattle?
- 10. What is also known as Johne's disease?

- 12. What causes lumpy jaw in cattle?
- 13. Infectious necrotic hepatitis
- 14. What causes infections through ingestion, venereal contact, contaminated skin wounds, inhalation and is transplacental?
- 15. What can affect all domestic animals and humans?

Down

- 1. What is a type of normal flora?
- 2. This produces suppurative bronchopneumonia in foals via inhalation of contaminated dust
- 4. This is caused by ingestion of contaminated feed, replicates in poor quality silage and has a pH greater than or equal to 5
- 5. What causes significant losses in pig industry?
- 9. This is an equine disease
- 11. A reportable disease because of human risk