

Grammar Terms Review

Across

- 5. a word that replaces a noun or noun phrase
- 8. A word or group of words in a sentence that limits or qualifies another word or group of words
- 9. a grammatically independent group of words, usually containing a subject and a predicate, that expresses a statement, command, request, exclamation, etc.
- 11. a word that expresses action or a state of being
- 12. A punctuation mark used to separate words within a sentence

- 13. A word that modifies a verb, adjective, or other adverb
 - 14. the person, place, thing, or idea that the sentence is about
 - 15. Punctuation marks used to set off a qualifying or explanatory remark from the rest of the text
 - 16. A punctuation mark used to separate independent clauses
- Down
- 1. A word that modifies a noun or pronoun
 - 2. A group of words that does not contain a subject and verb, but which functions as a conceptual unit within a sentence

- 3. A punctuation mark used to introduce a list or amplify the preceding thought
- 4. A clause that can stand alone as a sentence (2 words)
- 6. A clause that cannot stand alone as a sentence (2 words)
- 7. a word that represents a person, place, thing, or idea
- 10. A group of words the contains a subject and a predicate