

Great expectations

Across

2. what Pip strives to be
7. a semi-crazy old woman who doesn't believe in love MISS
11. where Dickens worked when he was young
12. how long this took oh my gosh
14. where Pip grew up NORTH
23. what Pip steals for Magwitch at the beginning of the book
25. something Pip gains later on
26. another way for transportation
29. the author
30. what Pip and Herbert find themselves in
31. an evil worker at Joe's forge
32. a lawyer and Pip's guardian
34. The era Dickens lived in
37. a running theme
38. another convict
42. where rich people got their clothes

46. the main love interest
47. Queen of Britan in the 1800s
48. Pip's best friend
49. a mean man and Estella's first husband
50. Pip's brother in law

Down

1. Herberts betrothed
3. Pip's uncle
4. Pip's friend and Joe's second wife
5. the town in London Pip stayed in
6. where Pip goes to become a gentleman
8. what Pip thinks Estella is
9. their mode of currency
10. what I need right now after sitting here for three hours
13. Jagers clerk
15. a convict who is also Pip's benefactor
16. Joe's job
17. who Copseymon show up with at the end

18. where Joe works
19. main form of communication
20. where Miss Havisham lost her belief in love
21. what they plan to smuggle Magwitch out in
22. the prison
24. "the ripper" a serial killer in London in the 1800s
27. the pub and inn in his home village BLUE
28. the main way of transportation
33. what the reader is left with at the end
35. the class most of London fell into
36. Jagers housekeeper and Estella's mother
39. where people kept their money on them
40. Estella's relation to Magwitch and Molly
41. Our main protagonist
43. The name of Miss Havisham's house
44. Pip's tutor
45. most common rich person drink