

Greek and Latin Vocabulary I

Across

2. ab, away from + tenere, to hold: not indulging in something

6. annus, year + vertere, to turn: the day on which something happened last year

7. ad, to + figere, to fasten: to attach

8. annalis, the adj. of annus, year: happens once a year

9. aggravare, to weigh down: to make something worse

11. bene, well + facere, to do; someone who gives help

12. bene, well + dicere, to speak: the invocation of a blessing

Down

1. bene, well + volere, to wish: kind, well-wishing, charitable,

3. con, together with + fidere, to trust: tell a secret to a trusted person

4. Per, thorough + annus, year: lasting through the years

5. ad, to + spirare, to breathe: to hope to do or have

10. ad, to + pendere, to hang: to add as a supplement