

Group 5 (Endo, Perio, Ortho and Prostho)

Across

3. _____ is making a hole, as in breaking through and extending beyond the apex of the root

6. Abnormal relationship of maxillary teeth to mandibular teeth when occluded.

9. _____ Examination technique that involves tapping on the incisal or occlusal surface of tooth to assess vitality

11. Instrument used to cut the interdental crestal bone after extraction

12. Subtractive bone surgery is also called as _____

15. Technique used to remove false pockets.

16. Periodontal instrument with kidney shaped blade and is used to cut gingival tissues from buccal and lingual surfaces.

18. An increased vertical overlap of maxillary incisors is called _____

21. Periodontal surgical instrument used to cut and remove interdental gingival tissue.

22. A complete denture usually contains _____ teeth per arch.

23. Provisional coverage means _____

24. _____ is a mechanical device that simulates the movements of TMJ

Down

1. Additive bone surgery is also called as _____.

2. Most common contributor to malocclusion.

4. The anti-microbial agent used for early onset periodontitis but can interfere with birth control.

5. _____ restoration is restoration placed at apex of root

7. _____ is a type of preformed temporary coverage. The other two are aluminum and acrylic polymer.

8. Also referred to as class II malocclusion.

10. If a provisional crown is dislodged, it must be _____ right away.

13. Healing Arts Radiation Protection

14. Also referred to as fixed orthodontic appliance.

17. _____ is to remove or clean out the pupal canal

19. FMS or _____ radiographs are taken for denture appointments.

20. _____ refers to the area of nerves, blood vessels, and tissues that surrounds the root of tooth

Word Bank

Orbans	Debridement	Recemented	Fourteen	HARP	Osteoplasty
Ostectomy	Retrograde	Tetracycline	Crowding	Articulator	Temporary
Braces	Perforation	Rongeur	Overbite	Distocclusion	Periradicular
Panoramic	Kirkland	Gingivectomy	Percussion	Polycarbonate	Malocclusion