

Group Dynamics

Across

6. can cause other group members to lose interest and or to be confused

9. tend to be the hardest and most important times to lead

11. this is directly resulted if a group is boring, confusing, and or unproductive

12. this is how superficial groups are created

16. this is dependent upon the leader's enthusiasm and or the members' trust and comfort level

17. listening not only to body language and voice tones but also to the content

18. Groups go through all of these

Down

1. using this skill can help a group member who tends to be superficial

2. finding a mix of people for a group

3. also known as an icebreaker and or mingling

4. Who is the father of group process

5. this reaction is an indicator of strong emotions

7. this can also be called blocking or intervening

8. a kind of group which is determined based on a specific reason

10. co leaders tend to plan together and also lead together / must be careful not to dominate the conversation though

13. the task or purpose of the group

14. the interaction between members, between members and the leader, and between members

15. this can help to ensure varying points of view and also various genders

Word Bank

- process
- cutting off
- screening process
- stages of a group
- co leader
- task group

- content
- lack of clarification
- setting the group's positive tone
- 1st and 2nd session
- unclear groups
- active listening

- Yalom
- tears
- milling
- drawing out
- ignoring group process
- shared leading