

Guiding Math Experiences

Across

- 2. The process of ordering real-life objects to tallest to shortest or shortest to tallest.
- 6. A form of classification that involves putting like objects together.
- 8. The understanding that one group has the same number as another.
- 9. A set with no members
- 10. The process of physically separating objects based on unique features.

Down

- 1. Giving children set activities to determine skills and / or needs.
- 3. Attaching a number to series of group objects.
- 4. Symbols that represent numbers
- 5. The ability to relate past and present experiences and classify items.
- 7. Two or more objects that are alike in some way and, therefore, belong together.

Word Bank

Rational Counting
Set
Specific Task Assessment
Empty Set

Recognizing Matching
Sorting

One-to-one Correspondence
Sequencing
Numerals