

HCP2B LI - Patient Safety

Across

1. This type of medical error includes wrong-site and wrong-patient operations.
4. Effective teamwork and communication is often inhibited by an _____ gradient.
6. The term that refers to errors that have potential to, but don't, cause harm due to early detection or luck
10. An injury caused by medical management is called an _____ event.
15. The aspect of the framework that refers to agreeing on matters of importance
16. In pre-procedure verification for surgery, it is important to confirm identity, procedure, site, and _____.
18. The _____ model depicts the idea that patient harm is usually the result of multiple errors.

19. The aspect of framework characterized by creating an environment where people are comfortable discussing concerns and questions is _____ safety.

Down

2. The 2 major domains of the patient safety framework are 1) learning system and 2) _____
3. This term describes what results when "near misses" are not addressed
5. Diagnostic errors can include misdiagnosis, wrong diagnosis, and _____ diagnosis.
7. This term embodies the idea that patient safety is always changing and is the product of doing many things right (Hint: no dash)
8. Refers to the tendency to accept the first answer that explains the facts at hand
9. The cheapest, most effective prevention of HAIs

11. The acronym for the HAI associated with urinary catheters
12. Surgical team members should conduct a _____ before beginning.
13. According to CDC, medical errors are the _____ leading cause of death in the US.
14. A licensed practitioner should _____ the procedure site clearly.
17. 1 in _____ patients in high-income countries experience an adverse event.